Monday, April 30, 2012

Birthday of Babuji Maharaj – Message 2

My dear son,

These anniversaries are a delight; they help to reaffirm the bonds of the heart, especially when those bonds are out of the ordinary. We are at your side more than ever. You know this, and yet you sometimes doubt it; so did we, and so will your successor – it is in the order of things. The heaviness of this world affects one's sensitivity in this very personal domain. We would like to be physically at your side in everyday difficulties, although your life is also embellished with joys and various opportunities for satisfaction. You are the incarnate Master, the Chosen one – chosen by God, by our hearts and all abhyasis who turn to you, full of confidence and love. You guide their lives, you inspire them, you love them, and most importantly, you do your work with such power that it sometimes dazzles us. We are grateful for this exemplary action that is yours. The Master's power, love and discernment characterise you. They are your strength, your everyday requirement in this very special struggle. A spiritual Master's life is not ordinary, indeed, but what a glorious journey!

My dearest son, we shower you with love and all our best wishes for the success of this celebration.

With all my heart, your loving Master.

Babuji