My Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, June 23, 2012 — 10:00 a.m.

My son's birth anniversary this year will be far-reaching; we are preparing it in our own way, and it will be fully commensurate with the power released in this circumstance. Beyond his physical person, there is another aspect that should not be overlooked: on Earth, he is a representation of the power of the united Masters. Let's emphasise this point once again: none of these anniversaries is trivial. He may approach this step with serenity; for the occasion, his greatness will manifest itself with all its might. Thus is the vocation of incarnate Masters: they need to overcome some difficult human conditions to be able to give their best.

"An unprecedented demand is already taking shape well ahead of time; many hearts have started to get committed in their own way for this event. We wish it to be imposing, unprecedented; has my son not been giving his best for so many years? His greatness works wonders and we are happy for that.

"We are anticipating a little this event, but is it not worth mentioning here and preparing in our own way! The heart-felt commitment of a large number of brothers and sisters delights us. Very soon when the day has come — this precious time in the way of Sahaj Marg — we will revert to this event.

"May our dear Parthasarathi be at peace against all odds; we are seeing to it."

Babuji Maharaj