Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, June 25, 2012 — 10:00 a.m.

We are reverting once again to the 'birth anniversary' of my son; this year it will take on a significant scope in the hearts, as per the wish of all of us here. We wish to emphasise the importance these very special days will have in the future: they will become the four cardinal points of this 'Sahaj Marg' planet. Everything has its reason for being. Human perceptions are limited, but our views in this realm of the Spirit are not. We wish the best for this Mission, so special in this pivotal moment for this world. Men will turn more and more to this refuge. The ways of the heart are unfathomable. They hold treasures of which men have no idea. We must make every effort to provide our candidates with the privilege to celebrate their Master, as appropriate, which is to say with magnificence, thanks to the motivation of all and their heartfelt commitment. How could we not insist on such special breaks in the course of a year? Can we not afford to set aside three dates in a year to celebrate the Masters with fervour and intensity? They form a whole, a unique asset that we enjoy by divine grace. So, let us honour with fervour and awareness, as is proper, all these days that are important to all. That is how it goes."
