Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, July 17, 2012 — 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, take heart. Your heart is not weary, it overcomes the trials of a demanding physical body. This rendezvous is somehow 'its reason for living'. Is it not a blessed moment when yours and mine are in harmony? What can we tell you on this day of great fatigue? We too experienced it and did as best we could, as you always do.

"Your Master's birth anniversary is being prepared. Humanly, it is not easy for him, he too must overcome severe fatigue. Can abhyasis imagine what it implies and the burden involved? How could they! We are doing our best to help him and we will ensure that this blessed day leaves its mark on people's minds, as it should. These days in our Mission are charged with such cosmic energy; everyone benefits from it for the good of the Mission as a whole. These ceremonies motivate people; they feel caught in a kind of vortex, the effects of which they do not have control over. The power of the Spirit is sovereign; it guides hearts committed towards their targeted goal. A sincere call is always heard. We are attentive to all our candidates; they are as one on this road, difficult to travel on, but secure in terms of its higher destination. May all our brothers and sisters proudly prepare for this blessed day among all."
