Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, August 29, 2012 — 9:00 a.m.

Think of the absolute beauty, harmony and peace among humans. Wouldn't that world be ideal? Dreaming of it starts it. It's a world in which evolved human beings would respect one another and build together that universe where spirituality unites all humans with the divine power. Thoughts of this kind are constructive, so, why not!

"Back to reality, dear soul — it is advisable here to act for the good of our brothers and sisters who are on the way to the ideal described above. Following a spiritual path is an edifying process; it is an indication that our abhyasis have an inner tendency that is conducive to their evolution. How many people care about their evolution? Being part of this elite group is reassuring, even if the path is strewn with pitfalls. What matters is commitment, moving forward and getting more and more involved in a practice that bears fruit. Time will demonstrate the accuracy of these statements. Acting towards the elevation of the soul, isn't it the noblest cause possible! We propose a course of action, an apparently simple method, yet it truly bears fruit. One should proceed accordingly sooner or later in their cycle of reincarnations. Realisation is the ultimate goal of the long journey of the soul towards its chosen homeland.

"May all understand the issue and act towards good, for themselves and for all; so is our wish."
