My Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, September 12, 2012 — 10:00 a.m.

Yes, we are here. Have we ever missed a rendezvous over all these years? Our hearts are waiting for this moment, as is yours, my dear daughter. Faithfulness here in a spiritual approach, as elsewhere, is essential. The correctness and strength of a call result in what we can see here with these writings. Nothing like this can be done offhandedly; noting down these messages requires rigour, and so do the follow-up tasks. Thus everything is for the best; the impact of these messages is growing in the hearts. That is the purpose of this kind of endeavour; we insist, but repetitions are necessary. Anything that can contribute to the elevation of our aspirants is worth considering. We wish the best and what is the most productive for the good of all. No aspect should be neglected. Human beings need incessant repetitions for almost everything here below. Likewise, spirituality is also strengthened by the daily ritual of our practice, that which we recommend and which the great majority of our brothers and sisters endorse by faithfully repeating what contributes to their advancement. Time shows them the benefits of this commitment; they are working for themselves and this justifies our greatest support. Even if the result of this loyalty is not always obvious, it is there, believe me. One day, in a special circumstance, the reality of these comments will unfold before you. The important thing is to act and advance. There is no time to lose; it cannot be made up, save for some exceptions. To the divine power anything is possible. Acting while being fully committed in the way of the heart is the best investment in this area. Therefore, [we wish] the best to all."

Babuji Maharaj