Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, September 18, 2012 — 10:00 a.m.

May this day be blessed and rewarding for you, my dear daughter. Our best wishes are with you. In these moments, love carries you in a special way. Thus harmony is achieved between our hearts and yours. A strong appeal cannot be ignored; our brothers and sisters are experiencing it every day. Fervour creates the event; it manifests itself in more than one way. Sadhana allows one's deepest being to rejuvenate itself, to refine its vibrations and thus expand its capacity to unite with the Divine. Love begets love; this is not new and is confirmed with every passing day. Steadfastness in one's practice and sincere commitment lead to convincing results. Many of our brothers and sisters exhibit total confidence in us; we are guiding them on a promising path capable of transforming their becoming.

"We want the best for all; it is not easy in these troubled times to follow such an approach and to be fully committed. We can appreciate it, believe me, and we try to promote as best we can an approach of this kind. Surrendering in all circumstances is a promising shield; it allows the human being to overcome many trials. Who is spared down here? Many battles must be fought, which can lead to unexpected and often positive situations. Everyone has a destiny and it is unavoidable. From life to life a story is being written, the common thread of which is the elevation of the being; becoming aware of it and acting accordingly is a great step forward.

"Blessed are those who take that step and who enjoy this inexpressible benefit: having an incarnate spiritual Master whose powers are thus magnified. May all be strengthened in their quest!"
