Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, September 19, 2012 — 10:00 a.m.

The echoes that come to you regarding this daily dissemination are very satisfactory. These messages are perceived differently by many of our brothers and sisters sensitive to their content; ancient writings will be even more appreciated. You cannot measure the impact they produce in hearts, but we can assure you that it is important. So, my daughter, let's carry on for a little while to note down these heavenly messages; this is beneficial for our Mission. The mind, as well as the physical body, needs adequate nourishment to satisfactorily maintain it in this register. On the aspect referred to here, we offer different ways to achieve this; everything must be done to help the aspirant to become ever more deeply involved in the way of the heart. This way, as we have already been witnessing for a long time, opens doors that otherwise could not have been opened. This method is offered to the human beings of this time; it prepares them to adapt to other more subtle energies, those which will characterise future times. The human being, regardless of his or her open-mindedness and conception of life, will have to take this step, to some extent, in order to survive. Changes take place gradually, but one will have to adapt in order to not regress.

It is our duty, in a spiritual way like ours where we do not remain fixed upon notions of the past, to advance in our comments and prepare our aspirants for what must come. Although many will not see it, it is advisable to do so for the good of all.
