Whispers from The Brighter World

Cultivate within yourself that rare essence; it connects you very subtly to our hearts. Love is a redemptive energy; it relieves tensions and embellishes hearts. This energy is dedicated to the divine power, to the living Master who channels its effects with a view to projecting it into the hearts — thus is the ritual performed, the one which strengthens the beings that are following in his wake. The process is simple: a Master of this stature has the secret key, the code allowing him to access this source blessed by the gods. So many people neglect this aspect of life; they have no idea about it and even if they did, they would not take it into account.

"Nothing can be forced in this area. Gradually the soul evolves, especially when a powerful call manifests itself and transforms a heart to its liking. This kind of grace occurs in different ways: gradually or suddenly, in a particular circumstance when the subtle being is willing to receive it and set out on the path to happiness with determination.

"All the means to achieve this status are beneficial. They lead a being to what is best for him now and to the path of spiritual fulfilment — that which allows him to not only overcome the burdens of this world, but to also attain the essentials: the success of a liberating approach that allows for every possible hope. May each of our brothers and sisters fully become aware of this opportunity that can transform their lives.

"To all the best, we are helping them accordingly."
