Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, October 26, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

Regain serenity; immerse yourself in us, in this ocean of love where your heart is in a state of greatest jubilation. Thus this ritual begins: you leave your various worries aside and you again find this unparalleled state. Here, peace settles within you; your being is overjoyed in loving and serving us. This exceptional surrender generates the best. This lead-in immediately puts you in the 'condition', shall we say. In reading this message, other hearts will feel the same call and they will leave aside for a moment the ups and downs of material life. They surpass themselves in such a dive into the self, when the soul becomes raptured and enters into the jubilation of loving. Reaching this Eden is a grace. Ardent hearts benefit fully from it; they isolate themselves from the world and its noise, and thus they achieve the best of their sadhana.

Following a spiritual path requires perseverance and total commitment in order to achieve the best results. Grace begets grace; an ardent heart is always heard when the aspiration to unite with the Divine is great and sincere. Perseverance brings about the expected outcomes, and these do not disappoint the committed and diligent seeker. What is more beautiful than a seeking soul when it reaches the Immutable Peace? The angels (yes, they do exist) are delighted by the rise of this newcomer. Our speech is a bit special today; why not highlight here this striking feature of the evolution of a human being? So much ugliness exists; here, let us see only beauty and what is offered to seekers who are experienced and tenacious in their practice. Each one is guided according to his or her aspirations, supported in this by the grace of the Master. To all we wish success, under our blessings.
