Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, November 12, 2012 — 10:00 a.m.

The Mission has reached a crucial point in its existence in this world. It is constantly expanding down here, and this is just the beginning. Its action goes beyond this world; it wins over spheres where awakened beings find their bearings in this teaching that suits them. This may seem surprising to humans, but they still have so much to discover in this world, and they will continue doing so in other spheres, in a different yet constructive manner. Teaching is not limited to this world; it extends in a vibrational manner and consolidates what is done here below. Nothing is lost. Beginning a spiritual process on this Earth opens up positive prospects for a promising beyond.

"Worlds are many and some are very special; each of them has different characteristics, but all are complementary and form a perfect unity. The divine power is surprising in its effects; its powers are indescribable. A human being cannot discern that which really is. Man, however awakened to higher consciousness, can only advance with confidence in his Masters that he will reach the goal, the one he should aspire to. Our committed and fervent aspirants understand the subtlety of this advancement towards the Ultimate. Each of them, according to their personal dispositions, is making progress in this way of the heart and the sovereign Spirit. This power is extraordinary, indescribable; hence the need to advance with utmost confidence, with ardour and faith. Whatever one's commitment, no one is wasting time; they receive according to their call — nothing can be forced. Surrender and love towards the Master are decisive in this matter where future prospects are at stake. These messages are an additional and very valuable asset. It is up to each one to become aware of this and take advantage of it."
