Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, November 29, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

Following a spiritual way denotes an aspiration to rise, to transcend what is already in one's life habits. From experience to experience, the human being goes up the ladder and opens to knowledge. It can all be very fast; there comes a moment in life when this aspiration to become one with the Divine becomes very strong and requires a deepening of the foundations already gained. Some come to it at a very young age, their previous incarnations having prepared them to engage in this ascent. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see the light." This light is at the end of the road. Following this road will never disappoint; in this area, efforts are not illusory but highly constructive. Nothing is lost; every effort bears fruit – in a completely different field, the elite athletes know this first-hand. Such are the laws of life. Beautiful souls attract one another and meet again on this journey towards the Eternal. From one incarnation to another, ties are strengthened when they are beneficial to the beings concerned. The beauty of a soul is a jewel; it draws in its wake beings who are predisposed to rise.

All our abhyasis are on their way; may they all attract other souls by the example they can set through a sincere and constructive journey. Love attracts love – it generates the best; sincerity and purity of heart are the greatest assets. Every human being is a potential mystic; grace can do the rest. May all be enlightened and strengthened in this noble quest for the Divine. Such is our wish.
