Monday, July 12, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

For this kind of contact, it is enough to have a good channel. This choice must be rigorous; here, as in many other areas, there is a bit of everything.

My child, not only did our two souls find each other through Sahaj Marg, but we can communicate thanks to this means; it is a great fortune and a shared joy.

When you leave this Earth, another medium will take over from you, to speak on our behalf. We are preparing this Soul. It is a long-term project to establish a connection that is fitting and reliable; we will entrust it [this soul] to your care.

The Medium: Beloved Babuji, you fill me with joy by placing your trust in me.
You know that only one thing matters to me – to satisfy you.

Everything is falling into place for your current and future mission. Yes, we trust you. What is impossible to achieve physically, you do in other ways.

Let us stay in the present; all these instructions regarding the future, which are not noted here, at my request, will be respected when the time comes. This boy is for you a spiritual son of great importance; you respect one another. His partner will have another role. Remain united in heart, you, the holders of these messages, and in contact, no matter what happens. You, my daughter, you always do all you can physically, and you carry a torch that beautiful souls see; it will not be extinguished anytime soon.

Take care of yourself, my child.

Babuji