Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, January 5, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

Everything happens in due time in our Mission; our dear and great son is inspired when necessary. As always, he is doing his best. Even if he can no longer travel the world as he would like, he operates differently and his action is exemplary – this is remarkable. When the time comes, he will do what is required. Our abhyasis would like to see him; let them be even more motivated in their work, and they will be heard. This Mission is like a big family; all must try to understand one another and act at both the material and spiritual levels. A joint action is always beneficial, and the Master cannot but appreciate everything that is being done for the good. The development of the Mission occurs at all levels. Spirituality must plant itself here and there on solid foundations: ashrams and places to gather and meditate always carry, to some extent, a specific energy that is favourable for the practice that we propose. The Master cannot be physically present everywhere, but spiritually his action keeps operating in any place where he is called and revered.

Blessed are those who contribute to the service of our beautiful way of Sahaj Marg with faith, ardour and confidence. All commitments are significant; they contribute to the good of each of our brothers and sisters. May all feel involved and inspired to act positively and constructively. Sahaj Marg is not an isolated phenomenon, but a global and decisive endeavour for the evolution of humanity. May all act as best they can and thus participate in the great divine plan.
