Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, January 8, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

When will harmony reign on Earth? Demonstrations of ego are still far too persistent – including in our Mission – for harmony to definitively prevail on Earth. Such is this world, and it will not change anytime soon. Human contacts routinely involve conflicts of this nature. A spiritual way like ours should calm these unfortunate events. The Master's work is a major asset; what remains, at this level of evolution, is the behaviour of each of our aspirants. It is necessary to observe oneself, to calm egotistical reactions for one's own good and the good of all. The practice, as we propose it, brings about convincing results, but they are not always visible to humans. This spiritual capital can be concealed behind behaviours that do not correspond to an ideal of perfection. Nobody is perfect; understanding, and surrendering to the Master in certain circumstances, reflects an inner disposition capable of revealing a person's wisdom and thereby his or her capacity to overcome negative circumstances.

Spiritual elevation is comprised of levels. Many situations must be overcome through acceptance and surrender to the Divine; thus is a person's greatness revealed. Wisdom is not acquired without difficulty; the Greatest Beings in the field of spirituality experienced very trying episodes, in the face of which their respective greatness was revealed.

It is up to each one to act as best they can for the good of the whole community. That is our wish for each of our aspirants.
