Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, January 24, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

Punctuality and rigour are necessary in a situation like this where whim has no place. How would these thousands of pages have been written if this were not the case? We can suggest everything and even say everything in these messages, but we know the weaknesses as well as the strengths of our abhyasis. Each one is doing their best with their own personal traits.

Cohesion is necessary in a Mission like ours where oversized egos must never be allowed to prevail in order to satisfy their ambitions at any cost. Nothing escapes us; we have said it so many times, and yet some continue to act, driven by their pride, without realising that they depart from an ethic that for us is essential. The truth always prevails in the end; Masters see to it, and sooner or later, what must be takes place. The future will clarify the destiny of our Mission, of its action in the world of humans. More than ever, beings worthy of serving us will need to become aware of what they are doing towards the development of a better world – one that is more focused on a reality that still escapes many of our aspirants.

One day, spirituality will become the central axis of this world; this may seem unlikely today, but that is how it is.

Those who are already moving in this direction are blessed; they are creating the spirit that is conducive to the establishment of this situation. All this may seem incongruous today, but our action is, and has long been, going in this direction.

Everything takes place slowly on Earth. Humans react in their own way and we have to take this into account. Nevertheless, we wish for a collective awareness in order to accelerate the evolutionary process on this Earth. Time is short, you can be assured of this. Always do your best to follow the spiritual Master chosen by the higher authorities; they alone can assess the capacity of a being to represent us in a worthy manner. May all our brothers and sisters respect what we offer them for the good of the Mission and, consequently, for the good of all.

Ceaseless blessings to each one.
