Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, February 7, 2013 — 10:00 a.m.

Transmission — this word, so often mentioned in our Mission, is not a hollow one; this very special energy cannot be perceived by all. We settle into hearts in our own manner, as best as possible. We are here in a special context where only love, this unique vibration, can manifest itself in all its might. Birth anniversaries are privileged moments in our Mission when the best can be generated in a fully surrendered heart. Throughout the days, our way offers many opportunities to invest oneself spiritually, and in more than one way. A strong commitment can completely transform the aspirant's life; many have experienced it, and we are pleased to notice it over time.

"Nothing is achieved without effort; it is necessary in our way as in any other process. Moments of grace are special blessings; they often leave a deep mark in a being, which then motivates him, and for good reason. To some extent, he knows and can evaluate from experience what such blessed moments can generate.

"Each of our aspirants has a different journey, but the goal is the same; they are all fully aware of it.

"All are on their way, and they are helped as is appropriate; they should never doubt it. Sometimes events may suggest otherwise, but none of our abhyasis is forgotten; all are followed and equal in our eyes, whatever their role in our Mission.

"All this is not necessarily perceptible. These subtleties are beyond most of our brothers and sisters, but they can rest assured that all are equally important to us.

"This is how it is."
