Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, February 13, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

You have to enjoy the good aspects of life; they may go unnoticed in a difficult journey. Uniting with the Divine brings serenity; it transforms the being and enables him or her to better face obstacles. While incarnations are diverse on the material plane, they are nevertheless based on the same principles – those which correspond to the transformation of beings.

In families, some physical similarities are noticeable, but these do not change in any way the pattern that is appropriate for the evolution of the incarnate being. All these principles are not easy to understand. The karmic laws are well defined. Only a serious and dedicated commitment can change one's lifeline so as to better reveal its spiritual dimension.

These consequent changes justify such a course and the establishment in this world of a spiritual way that is active on all levels. A successful incarnation cannot overlook this aspect of life; it is not the only aspect that contributes to it, but it remains one of the most important ones in a being's spiritual evolution.

We watch over all our abhyasis carefully and, with time, we can see the unfolding of that which did not seem possible before.

God's ways are unfathomable, and sometimes so surprising when complete and unexpected transformations take place in a human being. We have witnessed more than one in our Mission; is it not the main objective here, to give abhyasis a means to find their way and thus transform their lives?

All are united in this subtle and redeeming energy. May all our brothers and sisters reach the goal – that is the objective to be attained.
