Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, February 21, 2013 — 10:00 a.m.

Let yourself be carried away by love; your heart is fragrant with its scent, giving it free rein to tune in to us and grasp the subtlety of such a meeting. This contact brings joy and delight to the soul, allowing you to capture our comments.

"How many times has this ritual been performed and how many times will it happen again! Likewise, everyone can connect with the Masters' hearts and thereby derive the best effects in the course of their practice. These moments are privileged; they lift the being up to a more subtle level of consciousness and they refine the perceptions at that level.

"Nothing is done in vain in a spiritual way like ours. Everything is simple in appearance, but the results are there — obvious and noticeable in many of our brothers and sisters who are truly committed. We hope for a collective and sufficient evolution to decisively raise the level of consciousness of all those who are following us and who are truly committed to this liberating process. We are repeating it and will keep doing so: steadfast practice bears fruit whose appearance does not reveal its flavour — one that is subtle and unique. This delight of the soul is what the gods offer to beings who are dedicated to this divine worship. We cannot go any further in these comments. May they be understood by all! Everyone has the opportunity to grow through an approach like the one we propose and in which everything is being organised to get them there.

"Different means are proposed to the seekers; this way of simplicity saves valuable time. Going to the main thing, doesn't this deserve some effort? Efforts generate the best and that is the true goal of any incarnation.

"Everyone is supported according to their personal need. We truly attend to this and the results are very encouraging – why not emphasise it here once more.

"That is how it is."
