Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, March 25, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

The way of the heart – isn't it the most beautiful, and the most rewarding in its effects! What is more fitting than such an approach! It is not in vain; it results in significant progress for the being who is fully committed to this epic, worthy of the great conquerors! Here, the goal is noble and the success exemplary; this should not be forgotten. It is not a pastime, or a mere activity among the many that are offered by material life, but a commitment guaranteeing the seeker a true success that will not lose all meaning beyond this incarnation. May all our aspirants be truly motivated and realise the importance of their efforts within this spiritual way that has no apparent grandeur, but that is active in the sense that concerns us here.

A lifetime is short compared to eternity; all the more reason not to waste time. Each incarnation is an opportunity for all to take their destiny in hand, one might say; lost time cannot be regained. Everything is illusory here below except for this unique journey that elevates the soul towards its highest destiny. We propose a method and personal work within the context of a vast action, in which each one's determination contributes to results that are more than favourable.

The aspirant cannot grasp all its effects, but they are there; they are visible, and they assure a spiritual life full of promise. Over time, what must be accomplished is achieved. The potential of each of our aspirants finds the appropriate means here to express itself and develop as days go by.

Everything is possible, when a fervent heart attracts grace; then time no longer matters. Grace manifests itself in its own way and it produces the best, that which is humanly untranslatable, and it leads to the delight of the soul.

May the best be realised in everyone; there lies the goal of this process under our constant blessings.
