Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, March 26, 2013 — 10:00 a.m.

These numerous writings have provided valuable assistance to many of our brothers and sisters, and this has only just begun, so to speak. The subject matter is vast and yet it always comes down to the essentials: a surrendered heart, love, and the availability of each one to engage more and more in this process capable of leading man to the best of his abilities. Uniting with the Divine is the ultimate goal; at this highest stage, it leads one to the transcendence of the self. The subtle being reaches the sacred shores where his soul can exult. Thus is the ritual mentioned herein, one which so many human beings on this Earth find meaningless, as they ignore even the very principle of evolution. Such a finding is heartbreaking; our system cannot radically change the world.

"In order for sensitive beings to catch a glimpse of the reality of an incarnation, which is followed by a whole process not limited to this life, an action like ours is necessary for the good of the greatest number. Everything is repetitive. Thus are the rules here below and they are replicated elsewhere; that is the very principle of life. All other kingdoms are based on these laws. The law of evolution is unavoidable: no one escapes these continual repetitions.

"These cycles are the very movement of life and include the need for an eternal renewal. How would life operate otherwise! Divine laws have their reasons for being and manifesting in this way. Man, being so small and limited in everything, cannot understand all these subtleties; they escape him, and this is normal.

"All we are doing here is aimed at helping those who are eager to advance, to become refined and to seize, as best they can, that which we offer them in our own manner.

"May all progress. Our work is geared towards that, and we are very attentive to each one's request. May love carry them all, under our blessings."
