Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, May 1, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

This birth anniversary has motivated and brought together many abhyasis. The Mission is growing, and our faithful aspirants are also rising through their steadfast practice while following a very high-level Master. All this, in the centuries to come, will remain exemplary in people's memories. This beautiful history of Sahaj Marg has seen the light of day by divine grace and is not about to end; we are very happy about it for this humanity, which has reached an unprecedented level of suffering and destabilisation.

May this great Mission touch more and more hearts and bring them closer to their incarnate Master, who holds the powers of a hierarchy that is highly elevated and active at different levels of consciousness.

All is well. May our abhyasis benefit fully and serenely from this heavenly manna. To all, the best!
