Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, May 10, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

Here, with our Sahaj Marg teaching, we stay with the truth. Nothing is embellished and simplicity is a must. Only results matter. Through practice and that which results from it, the aspirants find sacred nourishment within themselves, that which lifts the subtle being towards nobler planes of consciousness. There lies the objective and also the reward for an ardent heart. May they all attain bliss and be nourished by the divine substance; such is our wish, the purpose of our work in this world.

To each, the best.
