My Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, May 11, 2013 — 10:00 a.m.

Keep well all these gems that emanate from a fervent heart and that are translated into words. They will appeal to some of our brothers and sisters who are sensitive to this music that can touch the soul. Under no circumstances should these gems be neglected; we have inspired you accordingly. 'Doesn't everything have its raison d'être!'

"Many of our abhyasis are opening up to the splendour of the Spirit and they are developing this perception in themselves. Following a spiritual way like ours, one that focuses on what is essential, saves valuable time. It does not tell nice stories meant to make impressionable people dream. Humans have reached a stage in their history where truth is needed amidst a chaos that is disturbing for humanity.

"May all our aspirants realise what is offered to them and enjoy it fully.

"It is up to everyone to see and to act."

Babuji Maharaj