Monday, July 12, 1999 - 10:00 a.m

For this kind of contact, it is enough to have a good channel. This choice must be rigorous, therein as well as in many other areas, one can find anything.

"My child, not only did our two souls meet again through Sahaj Marg, but we can communicate thanks to this means; it is our great luck and shared joy. When you leave this Earth, another medium will take over from you, to express him/herself on our behalf. We are preparing this soul. It is a long term work to establish a suitable and reliable connection; we will entrust it [this soul] to your care."

The Medium: "Beloved Babuji, you fill me with joy by thus putting your trust in me. You know that only one thing matters to me, to please you."

"Everything is being set up for your current and future mission. Yes, we trust you. What cannot be achieved physically, you do it differently. Let us stick to the present, all these instructions about the future, which I have requested you not to note down herein, will be implemented when times come. This boy is for you a spiritual son who carries weight; you respect one another. His partner will play another role. You, the holders of these messages, you should remain united through the heart, and in contact no matter what happens. You, my daughter, you always do all that you can physically and you carry a torch that noble souls can see; it is nowhere near dying out. Spare yourself, my child."

Babuji