Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, September 1, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

May peace settle in you and allow you to enjoy these magical moments of communion with our hearts. It seems that some so-called messages are being circulated in our Mission in our name; they are not coming from us – this has to be said once and for all. Over the years, thousands of our messages have accumulated, the complete contents of which will not be known to today's abhyasis. So why would we be giving them elsewhere? We have already said that imitators are not only of this world. We will not revert to this issue anymore, but things had to be clarified.

Let us continue, my dear daughter, for as long as possible; we will thus communicate each day so as to keep in touch with all the fervent hearts that follow our great and beautiful Sahaj Marg Mission which is blessed by the higher powers. This Mission has never been spared human turbulence, and neither have the Masters. Unfortunately, such are the laws on this Earth. A perfect world will not come about tomorrow; it is necessary to act for its advent and to pave the way for future times when another level of consciousness can prevail and transform the whole of humanity. Let us see this ideal world and move towards that prospect – such is the objective and the innermost motivation of pure hearts on their way to the unalterable peace. May all be enlightened and supported in their search for the Divine.
