Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, October 5, 2013 — 10:00 a.m.

Words, in this context, are blessings. Thus, in their own way, they capture the hearts of our brothers and sisters. Loving with such a love is a rare blessing; it enchants, it captivates the whole being. Loving in this way is equivalent to owning a real treasure — how very sad are those who do not possess it. Our aspirants are advancing in this direction, one that goes straight to the desired objective: the winning over of the heart, which holds so many treasures. Our work is geared towards this and will be felt more and more among the many who are inwardly seeking a genuine and profound transformation. Our speech may seem surprising today, but we must express ourselves like this.

"This day is special, as a unique vibration is running through the whole Mission. Blessed are those who feel its effects; they are thus able to enjoy the benefits even more. Many events are taking place that are beyond human perception. Our brothers and sisters are on their way and are advancing towards new times that will be spectacular in their effectiveness. Everything happens slowly but surely on Earth; the results are there, and they constitute a true asset. May all benefit from them and grow according to their aspirations.

"Blessings."
