Whispers from The Brighter World

This long journey of messages has been very productive; we inspire these messages every day. Let us repeat once again: beyond the words, it is our energies that manifest through them. How could we not seize such an opportunity! We use everything possible to help our abhyasis. Do they truly realise it? It is not easy to comprehend such a concept. Most of them advance with confidence and determination to make real progress. Everything is done to support this. Gatherings are also important; may all our brothers and sisters fully realise it. Each step in the practice has its purpose. Everything should be considered in this spirit: the living Master holds powers which man does not perceive, but which really operate for the good of all. Whether he is physically present or not, his action encompasses all continents; in this, divine laws keep all their mystery. Their effectiveness cannot be measured in human terms, and yet what they achieve is unsurpassed in this material world where everything ultimately comes down to multiple vibrations, which are also imperceptible to humans.

"We cannot go further into such comments; the time has not yet come for that. Numerous discoveries have been made over the centuries, but there remain many more which would surprise human beings. The time is not ripe. What matters is that our abhyasis grow spiritually — that is the magic key, the one which opens the doors of the sovereign Spirit. These messages, which explicitly come from the spirit world, are among the many assets offered in our way. There is nothing lacking, and all is for the best. It is up to each and every one to appreciate this as they see fit."
