Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, January 10, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

Your fervour is contagious as evidenced by the beautiful letters you are receiving. That state makes it easier to understand our comments, which exude a special energy that is aimed at the spiritual heart. The subtlety of this heart cannot really be described; we have given sufficient information on the matter, but there is still much more to say. When the time comes, we will lead our aspirants deeper into the knowledge of these elements that are essential for a true spiritual journey. The heart is the seat of the soul, as we have said many times; there lies the mystery for seekers who need to go deeper into their self-discovery. They hold a treasure. The important thing is to know it and to act, especially in the true sense of owning it. The human being is much more subtle than science believes; only a few scholars in this field have a real approach to the truth. A true spiritual dimension is necessary, and it is not given to everyone. The quest for the Divine is, and will remain, the best-kept secret in the world of matter, where evolution is very slow compared to that which exists elsewhere. Thus are the laws of life; we all work here to ensure that humanity progresses more than it has thus far. Everything is possible; let us work together towards this elevation of consciousness so that the best will take place and generate a world of peace and love. Today, your Beloved Babuji has given his place to the 'Grand Master' of the Mission, to use your term. This is how it goes, dear brothers and sisters; we are united in infinite love."
