Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, January 11, 2014 — 10:00 a.m.

What more can be said and done to further sensitise our abhyasis to the importance of the practice? In its apparent simplicity, the practice generates very good results. It leads the subtle being into a spiral of peace and love, engaging many of our brothers and sisters who are eager to move forward. From one incarnation to another, the need to unite with the Divine arises. This profound call is inescapable. So many lives have changed after a real need for spirituality has been inwardly revealed to them. The present world does not leave human beings with much time for interiorisation. Their minds are constantly attracted by the movement of the material world. Wise people manage to set aside some time to attend to the basics, isolating themselves in their own way and thus transcending the negative vibrations in which they constantly move. Sages of the past retreated to protected places; today our fervent abhyasis manage to spare time for daily meditation and for uniting with the living Master through the heart and in spirit. Transmission is real; one only needs to connect and let oneself sink into a true moment of peace and surrender to the Divine. Grace operates in its own manner at the opportune time, benefitting each one according to his or her inner call; this call is key in such a situation. Anything can happen, completely changing one's life when destiny manifests itself. Blessings to all."
