Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, January 12, 2014 — 10:00 a.m.

Our dear scribe, we are not running short of arguments; we can see the benefits produced by these contemporary 'Vedas', as these writings have been called by this brother abhyasi who understands their importance. Elite souls can recognise where the true path lies, that which emanates from the Divine and touches hearts that are open and responsive to its splendour. The purpose of these messages is to help ardent souls move towards the Ultimate. Many ancient writings have sufficiently demonstrated their power and their helpfulness, which continues even today. Each time period provides an opportunity for humans to understand what is important for their progress in this area.

"Every human being has a history, but enlightened souls meet again on these enchanted shores where the voice of the 'angels', as they are called, leads them to bliss. Pure hearts always find their way; they are called when a clear and decisive action is needed for the good of hearts eager to love and serve in their own manner. Any commitment is important when it contributes to the good and the advancement of humankind. Real life has no end; all that is good for humans endures and is indelibly inscribed in time. What emanates from the hearts of the Masters has its raison d'être. Blessed are those who are nourished by it and who thus contribute to the spiritual progress of humanity. The entire Mission forms a single heart — one that is growing, one that will mark these times and will be definitively renowned in this world. This is how it goes."
