Whispers from The Brighter World

Regain serenity – it allows our contact. Your heart feeds on our energies, and all this helps in taking down these messages. This long-established ritual is not commonplace; a very special bond unites you with us. Doesn't everything have its raison d'être!

Human beings cannot easily understand divine laws. They interpret things in their own way and proceed with life, believing they hold its secret. It sometimes disorients them and does not lead them where they would like, but no one is privileged in this regard, including the chosen ones who work specifically in divine service. It is not easy for humans to adapt to these principles. It takes them a long time to acknowledge that a higher power directs their steps and can lead them where they did not wish to go – that is to say, where their destiny awaits. Wise humans admit this reality, but do they always understand the reasons for certain changes which they do not find necessary? Limited as they are to their perception of things, how can they accept the precision with which everything comes about – sometimes unbeknownst to them, we might say.

We will always come back to the same conclusion: everything has its raison d'être. Though it seems simplistic, what we say here reflects a reality that is disconcerting for humans: how can they admit that they are always being directed! Whatever their personality, everything can capsize in a moment and destabilise the strongest of them. Surrender saves one from everything; this is an inescapable truth, and it is not about to change. Therefore, may wise human beings adapt to these laws and do their best in everything. One day, the truth will dawn upon them and they will adapt for the good of their own evolution.
