Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, January 28, 2014 — 10:00 a.m.

How can people not respect your sufferings, your need for peace and harmonious surroundings! Even if your condition cannot be properly evaluated, you are enduring it as best you can, and you are working for us with so much love, against all odds. We do see beings in all their truth. Who better than we can assess the purity of intent and the beauty of a heart that is so available and surrendered to our wishes! The remarkable work you have done goes beyond channelling; it is about total commitment and extraordinary purity of intent. Do not feel embarrassed, my dear daughter, as we are stating a fact: these messages are a real treasure for our Mission. Our great son, your Master, appreciates them at their true worth. In his greatness, he knows what to do about this extraordinary teaching.

"No human being is perfect, but our spiritual way is full of resources. It allows each of our abhyasis to work on their weaknesses and advance against all odds towards greater surrender, humility and grandness. Work like this leads to real results. It cannot be evaluated on a daily basis, but over time it constitutes a treasure, an asset for those who are fully committed to following us. One day, our brothers and sisters will become aware of the reality and the way they have come, carried by our love and constant attention. Blessings."
