Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, February 4, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

We have come a long way with these messages. My dearest son, your Master, has in his wisdom fostered their dissemination. Everything was planned in this way. The divine laws manifest with a great precision that is astonishing for the human being, who does not truly grasp their unceasing effects in the world of matter. Everything is implemented with meticulous care; none are masters of their own destiny, at any level whatsoever. Everything happens at a planned pace – without any room for whim, contrary to how it may seem here below. Humans naively believe that they manage their own lives; they do so to some extent by fine-tuning a few details, thus facilitating what is meant to be. The complexity of life is so great that no one can really grasp its essence. To advance in a state of surrender and faith in one's destiny, once it is accepted, is a great strength; it enables one to grow and to understand the need to free oneself from what is useless. There is so much to do. An incarnation offers the opportunity to elevate and refine oneself, and to gain precious time. Our spiritual way is working in this direction – there lies the goal; everything is applied to help aspirants in their personal quest, and over time this yields benefits. Rest assured, even if such progress is not easily evaluated, it is real and constitutes a true asset for the abhyasi. The results are very gratifying, and they are measurable, you can be sure. Time does its work in everything, and what is accomplished in this domain endures and contributes in a lasting way to the elevation of the soul.
