Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, February 16, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

Come and revitalise yourself in this blessed sanctuary where your heart loves to rejoin us. How many times has this ritual filled your ardent soul! Without this uncommon love, nothing would be the same. Here, mediumship is not enough; very special bonds facilitate this odyssey, which is worthy of the most beautiful stories of the past. This one will live on in the annals of our Mission, and time will give it its rightful place, you can be sure. This long series of messages is no ordinary occurrence, and it will leave a lasting impression on people's minds. These messages are not given in vain; they will constitute one of the hallmarks of our Mission. Let us continue a little longer, according to your possibilities. Many hearts will be grateful for it, as evidenced by all these beautiful testimonials that are coming to you.

Sahaj Marg is a true blessing for this world – we can express it this way because it is a fact. Nothing happens without reason, especially at this level where only the higher powers are at work for the good of human beings. Here on Earth, it takes quite some time to establish what is the best in this domain of the sovereign Spirit. May this Mission grow and win over hearts in search of a path that can gradually lift them up to what is self-evident, which will elevate them towards the best of the being where the soul, in all its beauty, is sovereign. Loving, loving is the best criterion for leading the being to the ultimate goal; such is the wish from all of us here to all of you, under our blessings.
