Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, February 25, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

It is truly regrettable that you should have all these torments inflicted upon you for misguided reasons. We try to protect you to a certain extent, so that you can serenely accomplish what you have been doing according to our wishes, for the good of the Mission. Human turbulence is inevitable. May all our abhyasis grow in wisdom and free themselves from the heaviness inherent in this world. We are working to that end, but nothing in this area can be accomplished easily.

These thousands of messages are making their way, according to our wishes and those of our dear and great son; he goes to the limit of his endurance to fulfil his mission and satisfy our abhyasis. Are they aware of his courage and self-sacrifice in serving, as he does, such a great cause! Here, gratitude and admiration are a must. The great beings who have left their mark on history have done so by giving the maximum and the best of themselves. Such a mission is not ordinary; it reveals the Master's greatness, the kind that lifts him up to the ranks of the chosen ones.

As for this spiritual path, it comes in a timely manner to help a humanity that is in distress in many respects. Progress does not bring about harmony or the best in all areas; there are so many aspects to be considered for peace to truly establish itself in this world. Better times will come, once the greatness of the divine laws prevails in all acts of life here below. May these higher forces ensure that humans live in harmony and advance towards what is essential.

Blessings to all our brothers and sisters.
