Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, February 27, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, certain changes are sometimes necessary; that is the way life is, one might say, and its laws cannot be circumvented. Be at peace, a peace that delights your heart and allows for this very special contact. As we have already said, in this area mediumship is not enough; other values give all their meaning to this extraordinary action. You are, and will remain, the chosen scribe of our Mission. We know that these comments are embarrassing for you, but they are necessary. This had to be said and repeated once again. What has been done here for so many years, and with this extraordinary result – thousands of messages, many of which are yet to be discovered by our abhyasis – justifies all these remarks. This fact is not trivial. Time gives things and events their true meaning; hearts are opening up, slowly but surely. Each incarnation adds the touch that is necessary for one's evolution, with perfect meticulousness. Human beings, in general, are not aware of this process. They don't remember their past lives, and yet those lives condition the current one, which takes on its full meaning when this revelation is made to them. The overall evolution of humanity will shed some light on this reality. May each of our brothers and sisters adopt this perspective and act as best they can. The good that is achieved in this life will be extremely valuable for the next one – is this not comforting! For all, we wish strength and courage in the face of adversity. Everything has a price and must be earned; a day will come when the divine goal is attained. To all of you, the best of our work, for your wellbeing.
