Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, March 13, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

The Sahaj Marg Mission follows its sacred journey; its Masters are chosen by a supreme elite, endorsing the choice of Masters who have already marked this path – one that is unique in many respects. As we have already said, everything concerning this lineage has long been planned. The future Master chosen by all of us here will fully meet the demands of times to come. This Mission is constantly growing. After the great upheavals to come, it will set off again on a new basis and retain its full power of action. 'What must be will be' – such are the inescapable laws of the higher powers, and it is good to respect them, you can be sure. Precedents in this Mission have proven it. Humans sometimes have difficulty understanding, and they claim the right to disregard our instructions. This does not serve them well, as experience has sufficiently demonstrated.

A diagram has been given concerning our Mission; the chosen successor will take his place within it at the right time. Four Masters will thus mark this unique way, blessed by the gods. Our abhyasis do not truly realise their good fortune; what is offered to them in this lifetime is unique and determines their future. Everything is done for the good, and it is up to each and every one to seize the opportunity offered for their advancement. The Mission will continue its course, with the guide and Master long since decided upon by the powers that guide it. Everything is for the best. When our beloved great son comes to join us, he will be celebrated like he cannot imagine. All is in the hands of the higher powers; they direct our destinies to the highest. This is the way it is.
