Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, March 15, 2014 – 8:40 a.m.

The future Hyderabad temple will be erected to the glory of the Masters of the Mission, who have led it to its most favourable and definitive status. The Mission will defy time and illustrate this way of the heart – so prolific in its effects, for the good of humanity. Nothing is done in vain in such an area; the ways of God are what they are, and nothing can circumvent them. This is how it is.
