Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, April 15, 2014 — 10:00 a.m.

Seeing only the beautiful in everyone and around oneself, protecting oneself and overcoming the ugliness of life, ennobles and strengthens the human being. Whatever the beliefs — which are varied around the world — everything comes down to this need: to speak the truth. Skirting it in certain circumstances is an unfortunate ploy and has always been far too common on this Earth. Human beings have grown up in a positive manner, therefore the time has come for some of them to be enlightened on key issues. Ignorance does not help one grow, and it would be good if it were remedied.

"How can we help our brothers and sisters in the daily struggle that is life? We support them in the best possible way through transmission at all levels, including through these daily messages. Over time, these messages will continue to benefit humans who are in search of a reality, that of the soul's elevation as it finds its way by means of a spiritual process. Devoting time to this process is very wise; life is short and this is the most valuable asset, one that determines the outcome of this long journey through which the being is ennobled. So many lives are needed to achieve the goal. Nothing is easy, but everything is won over when the heart becomes a person's true guide. Connected to the higher powers, such a being holds the key, that which opens the 'true' door to this sacred space. It is then that hope for an elsewhere arises, an elsewhere where peace can truly reign by glorifying love as we advocate here. Blessings."
