Whispers from The Brighter World

This journey of messages is long, and all of us here express ourselves through these pages. Our choices are made for good reasons with regard to decisions of importance — such as the choice of our dear Parthasarathi as my successor. Everything in this domain is done with a specific purpose — in particular, concerning the choice of the living Master. It is not about granting an honorary title; rather, it is a decisive act here below that is meant for the benefit and evolution of our human brothers and sisters. The same is true for Parthasarathi's successor; we have chosen him with a view to what the Mission must become and according to his ability to act for the best. Times will change, and new problems will have to be faced.

"A substantial expansion will lead to very important decisions being made for the balance and coherence of this vast and unique spiritual movement. Quietly, simply, things are being set up. Managing this huge undertaking both spiritually and materially requires special abilities, the sustainability and effectiveness of which we will support. The future of this Mission is our responsibility. We have been taking care of it for a long while, and we act in a timely manner, as has already been demonstrated in the past. Here, our vision is different; it is complete, thus we are able to consider all the facets of a choice, especially with respect to very important decisions. Time will do its work, and we will always accompany the current Master as well as his successor, who has already been designated. Thus is the will of the higher powers made clear; we here in particular listen to them for the good of all in this spiritual Mission, which is blessed by the gods."
