Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, June 5, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

We must here comply with the laws of this world. A day will come when a big step will be made, and we will then be able to move into a higher gear – provided that humanity progresses. Many people, even within our way, wish that everything would stay in its current state, at least with regard to additional teachings. That time will come; everything is planned accordingly. What matters today is to advance spiritually and to perfect one's way of being, with respect to the teachings we offer in our Mission. They are rich in substance – more than is apparent – and they are diverse. The speeches of the incarnate Master provide for it and guide the aspirant; these messages also touch many hearts ready to truly commit themselves. Letting oneself be guided in a state of utmost surrender, with faith and determination, saves precious time.
