Whispers from The Brighter World

This kind of love is the most beautiful jewel in one's life. How could it be otherwise in a spiritual way like this, where love finds its full blossoming! Opening one's heart in a state of greatest surrender to the Master leads to an auspicious and liberating state. A way opens up before the aspirant; it is up to him or her to do the needful, to be committed, and the rest will happen on its own by divine grace.

The Mission has a great many fervent members who are totally committed to its service. They set an example by managing things at all levels in both their material and spiritual lives – a beautiful example indeed, one that affirms the personality of an ardent and convinced abhyasi. Referring to the incarnate Master supports them on a daily basis; they are thus guided and strengthened. It is beautiful and encouraging to witness this success; blessed are those who are convinced and strongly committed to their personal work. This work is very rewarding – they can believe it. A day will come when they will be able to see the results, which will fill them with joy. Living in the service of a great and noble cause opens up delightful prospects.

Time is counted here below – so dearly. Everything has its raison d'être, and the smallest commitment is significant to us. Nothing on this Earth can be achieved without effort. An incarnation offers many opportunities; it is up to each and every one to find their way, and to serve it as best they can, according to their own aspirations. To each, their own path and personal success, under our constant blessings.
