Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, June 18, 2014 — 10:00 a.m.

All these beautiful testimonies coming from many countries show you just how great is the impact of these messages. The future will give them a level of importance that cannot be imagined today. May all these fervent hearts be blessed; one day the divine goal will be achieved — such is the main objective. Our action goes well beyond the visible realm, operating at different levels of consciousness in which very subtle work takes place. As we have just mentioned, such work is carried on beyond this world — a fact that is unprecedented and deserves some moments of consideration. Loved ones who leave this Earth, particularly abhyasis, often continue with increased ardour that which they started here below. Life is one and indivisible, and committing to a spiritual way like ours saves a lot of time. The goal of all life is to grow in wisdom, to become refined enough to access higher planes. We seek the best for all our brothers and sisters who are committed to this redeeming path where that which must happen is achieved day by day.

"We are not repeating ourselves in vain; human beings need many reminders in order to truly integrate certain comments of ours. These comments are not part of their daily lives, but perhaps one day it will be so. Leaving room within oneself for that which is essential is a wise and decisive action for the enhancement of the being. In this area, perseverance is a determining factor, and our support is unwavering. Whether it can be perceived or not, this support is there, you can believe me. We cannot transform life on the material level, but spiritually the best can happen. You can be sure that courage and perseverance lift you up to our hearts. Thus is accomplished that which must be — namely, excellence. May all be strengthened and enlightened."
