Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, July 2, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

Humanity is moving very slowly towards its destiny, 'towards the Ultimate'; here we can only help our aspirants win over a space of beauty within themselves, where the spiritual holds a place of choice. They are guided more than they think, out of the vagaries of the material world where conflicts of all kinds constantly arise, situations that do not foster spiritual ascent. May all our brothers and sisters realise that harmony among humans is a major element facilitating the advancement of all.

This world is not perfect – far from it; a great deal of work remains to be done. Everything has been set in motion for this; for our part, we are doing our best. Abhyasis must pause, take stock of this essential aspect and, if necessary, reconsider their approach in every respect. A life is short in the face of eternity – all the more reason to achieve the best in this one, thus favouring a path capable of yielding good results at all levels.

This world needs to be cleansed, to be purified, before it can surpass the stage where it now stands despite the tireless efforts of those who are fully committed. There are 'scouts' of a sort who are motivated and inspired in their personal mission; they are not lacking in Sahaj Marg, you can be sure. We support them in everyday life and are well placed to judge; they make us proud. May all apply themselves whole-heartedly, with faith and determination; the results are already there, and you can be sure this is only the beginning.

Blessings to all.
