Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, July 7, 2014 – 10:30 a.m.

May our abhyasis be assured: there will always be a spiritual Master in our Mission, in the way they conceive of it. The means of transmission will differ completely, but so will the world; human beings will change in their personal vibration, which will put them more directly in phase with the higher powers. An immense work remains to be done, but it is being prepared – hence our constant urging that one be even more committed to the practice, as best as possible, in order to benefit from the transmission through the vector of the incarnate Master. This transmission is unprecedented; in our way, it prepares for a future where substantial changes will transform life here below. Humans will know how to adapt themselves; another level of consciousness will be accessible to our aspirants, allowing them a different approach to spirituality through this highly blessed Sahaj Marg channel, which is supported by higher powers.

May our abhyasis be assured: a guide, a Master – as per the designation given in our way – will continue to work very differently, and on a very large scale, up to levels unimaginable today. Sahaj Marg will play an important role in this exceptional process. May all our abhyasis remain confident, focused on their own commitment and determined to progress according to the unprecedented opportunities offered to them. A truly beautiful page of history is being prepared for the future of this Mission, which already glitters in the highest of heavens.

All is well, this Mission is blessed. May all understand this and commit themselves even more to this way of the heart. Very special blessings on this very special day, when we express ourselves differently in order to answer questions from minds in search of truth. All is well, let us repeat it: trust, surrender and love – are they not the characteristics of our way!

Unceasing blessings.
