Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, July 10, 2014 — 10:00 a.m.

These messages, given for so many years, are genuine; it would not be reasonable to doubt their content. Abhyasis want to know, understand and be provided with revelations, but above all they don't want their habitual way of thinking to be disturbed. Do our aspirants trust their Master and the hierarchy that supports him? Our laws are not those of humans; we see farther in time, and we see how events will unfold. Regarding our Mission, everything has been foreseen for a long time. Whatever changes may come, the future of the Mission is perfectly defined, and everything will converge for its expansion in the world, and in the best conditions.

"'Changes in habits' does not mean giving up anything or upsetting the established order in the hierarchies of leadership. On the contrary, the future will require a highly efficient international structure. Everything will fall in place at the right time. The Mission has already come a long way, and it has only just begun; it will be able to adapt to future circumstances, and it will be established on this Earth in a definitive and constructive way. New elements will be added to that which already exists in terms of construction, and this is just a start: ashrams and other places of practice are emerging. This Mission is being built at all levels, and nothing will stop its spiritual breakthrough; it will be unprecedented in its action and highly effective. This is how it goes; may all understand and accept our comments."
