Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, July 11, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

Our dear Janaki is the epitome of discretion, watching over her son with much love and exemplary lightness. She stays in the background yet accompanies him daily on his difficult path. There too, love is a strength; what would this world be if it did not benefit from this power, whose action is unparalleled? Bonds created on Earth are very strong in some cases; they carry on beyond and give birth to wonderful stories that go down in the ledgers of time.

We love these testaments, and they can be reassuring to humans, who sometimes feel abandoned and left to their own fate. 'The beyond', as it is called, is full of promise; what is good here below is preserved as a true asset for the beneficiary. As for our Mission, it is promising, and we very often allude to its future – a brilliant one in prospect, which encourages us to work even more in that direction. Spirituality will develop to answer the increasingly intense call of hearts in need.

Nowadays a true spiritual path is sought to meet a call of the heart, and not to conform, as was the case for many in the past, to a social code representative of a necessary and reassuring power. True mystics have always existed; at all times, noble and great figures have marked the history of this world. A true call of the heart allows one to commit in all clarity and confidence to advance towards the goal with faith and ardour. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see the light. All are free to embark on this path; the way is open before them, and they are expected.

Blessings.
