Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, July 12, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

Your sufferings are not in vain; one day you will truly understand the reasons for them. They refine your vibrations, that which creates this extraordinary sensitivity in a medium for the realisation of what is so special here. Everything has its raison d'être; it is not easy for the human being to understand all these aspects of life. An exceptional work is accomplished here – let us emphasise it. Doesn't everything end up becoming normal in the eyes of humans! We do appreciate things at their true value, and you can be sure these writings hold a choice place.

What is most important has been done, you can be certain; we are moving forward on a path where beautiful prospects are opening up to all of us with regard to this spiritual Mission, so very dear to our hearts. The efforts made on all sides have not been in vain. Each abhyasi committed to this system, regardless of the nature of his or her contribution, adds to this sacred edifice whose action on the human plane is of a large scale. All our attention is focused on building solid foundations that will affirm this action, increasingly so in the future. Everything is being done at this level as well, so that the best can come about. However small their commitment to this extraordinary work, all abhyasis benefit from the grace that is shed on the entire Mission. This Mission will definitely leave its mark on these times; it is not easy for humans to truly assess this, but for us, it is. Nobody is wasting their time, otherwise why would we pay them so much attention? The Mission is unique among its kind, you can be sure.

Blessings to all.
