My Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, August 10, 2014 — 10:00 a.m.

Let us try in this troubled context to stay focused on this message. What more can we say that has not already been said, and yet we are tempted with the passing days to revert to issues that are important for our brothers and sisters: surrender, unity and sincere commitment to this way. It is a path in which something unique unfolds — the daily transmission emanating from the world of the Spirit and destined for the whole of this Mission, where many pure hearts truly follow us through this extraordinary epic. This common thread is intended to unite them even more to the living Master who is supported by a hierarchy that is very attentive to him, even if it cannot spare him the human torments that are so painful and that fill us with consternation. The love of our aspirants too supports him in some way. Unfortunately, life is such that not everything can be avoided; in such circumstances, it is appropriate to do your best and to surrender to this higher power whose works exceed human understanding.

"The course of this Mission is just beginning; it will stand out more and more in the future when many people will be drawn in by an unequalled power that is liberating for all of humanity. Thus is life: over time it comes alive for each one and provides elements that facilitate their advancement, paving their way on the only worthwhile path — one that opens up broad prospects. Blessings to all."

Babuji Maharaj